PRAIRIE POST

DAYCARE CENTER CONSTRUCTION STARTING

With the approval from the Yellow Medicine East school district, the City has officially taken ownership of the requested property just north of the old school building. After review and some adjustments to the daycare center floor plan, we are moving forward with construction in the very near future. Tiny Sprouts on the Prairie will bring 9 new jobs to Clarkfield, along with providing care to 58 children. Kathy Koetter, Clarkfield Charter School Director and Amanda Luepke, City Administrator have begun collecting donations to fund the daycare center; along with applying for grants. If you or anyone you know are interested in donating to the daycare center or would like more information on the initiative, please contact Amanda Luepke at 320.669.4435.
